

RESPONSIBLE BUSINESS FOR HUMANITARIAN EMERGENCIES

Warsaw, June 11, 2019

09:00 OPENING REMARKS	Jacek Czaputowicz Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Poland
09:10 – 10:40 FUTURE OF HUMANITARIAN AID HIGH LEVEL PANEL	The humanitarian system is under increasing pressure due to growing fragility and complex crises. New types of partnerships and actors must bring their specific skills and expertise to address this challenges of changing world. What are the challenges for humanitarian action? Who are the key current and new actors and do they hold the answer to the future of humanitarian financing? How can the accountability, coordination and effectiveness of all diverse resources be improved? MODERATOR: Patrycja Sasnal (The Polish Institute of International Affairs) PANELISTS: Jacek Czaputowicz (Minister of Foreign Affairs of Poland); Mark Lowcock (Under Secretary General, UN OCHA); Riad Malki (Minister of Foreign Affairs and Expatriates of Palestine); Ulana Suprun, MD (Acting Minister of Health of Ukraine); Abdul Salam Al Madani (Executive Chairman of DIHAD); Umra Omar (Founder of Safari Doctors)
10:40 SPEECH	Andrzej Duda President of the Republic of Poland (TBC)
11:15 – 12:45 MOTIVATIONS, PROSPECTS, AND CHALLENGES. BUSINESS AND ETHICS IN HUMANITARIAN EMERGENCIES AND POST CONFLICT SITUATIONS PANEL DISCUSSION	The change in nature of humanitarian crisis forces us to develop a new way of thinking of how to work more effectively and efficiently. Panel will analyze and identify ways for the private sector to play more substantial role in assisting during humanitarian emergencies and post conflict situations. What are the possibilities for business to engage into humanitarian aid? What can be the added value of business engagement in more timely, adequate and effective humanitarian response? Is the private sector doing its share? And even if it does, how can we develop more effective and mutually beneficial cooperation? What role can emerging economies play in humanitarian aid? Is it still possible to provide ethical humanitarian aid? How can we assure that the humanitarian aid remains principled? MODERATOR: Angus Rennie (Senior Manager, UNGC) PANELISTS: Agnès Marcaillou (Director, UNMAS); Patrice Quesada (Senior Regional Emergency and Post Crisis Specialist, IOM); Katarzyna Zajdel-Kurowska (Alternate Executive Director, World Bank); Sahba Sobhani (Global Programme Advisor-Private Sector, UNDP); Sergii Doma (Senior Advisor in Ukraine, Center for Civilians in Conflict); Urszula Ciołeszzyńska (President, Polish Network of Women Entrepreneurship Ambassadors)

12:45 – 13:45	Lunch break
13:45 – 15:15 NEW TECHNOLOGIES AND INNOVATIONS FOR HUMANITARIAN EMERGENCIES PANEL DISCUSSION	The number of people in need due to humanitarian crises resulting from conflicts, climate change-related events or population growth is on the rise. The crises are becoming more complex while, at the same time, technological progress advances at an ever increasing pace worldwide. Does technology offer means for preventing or mitigating the implications of crises? How can the innovations be truly impactful? While data empowers, data is also something that we need to guard and data is something that we need to respect. Is it possible to develop applications or algorithms and maintain a clear understanding of security and safety? MODERATOR: Tariq Qureishy (CEO, MAD Talks) PANELISTS: Franck Bousquet (Senior Director, Fragility, Conflict &amp; Violence, World Bank); Leonor Nieto (Head of Unit, Humanitarian Aid Thematic Policies, DG ECHO); Rebeca Moreno Jimenez (UNHCR); Gerhard J.W. Putman-Cramer (Ambassador, Director of DIHAD International Scientific Advisory Board); Jakub Ryzenko (Head of Crisis Information Centre, Space Research Centre, Polish Academy of Sciences); Paweł Poncyłjusz (President of Supervisory Board Flytronic S.A GRUPA WB)
15:30 – 17:00 HEALTH IN DANGER PANEL DISCUSSION	Populations affected by armed conflicts and natural disasters experience severe public health consequences as a result of food insecurity, population displacement, the effects of weapons, and the collapse of basic health services. How we should develop the evidence base for humanitarian health interventions and explore mechanisms for its promotion? How to build trust and understanding for health improvements? How to implement timely, efficient, and effective relief programmes? MODERATOR: Jan Emeryk Rościszewski (Hospitalier, Polish Association of the Order of Malta) PANELISTS: Maciej Polkowski (Head of Initiative Health Care in Danger, ICRC); Stefan Swartling Peterson (Chief of Health, Associate Director, UNICEF); Abdullah Al Rabeeah (Supervisor General of King Salman Humanitarian Aid and Relief Centre); Rudi Coninx (Chief of Humanitarian Policy, focal point for “Attacks on Health Care”, WHO); Yaroup Ajlouni (President, Jordan Health Aid Society)